Course G

The M (north) mark of the Friday evening G course of the Grudge Regatta will be the MYC Fixed mark as described in Illustration B of the Sailing Instructions.

This mark is a vertical red and white pole with no light. Its last known position was N43 02.936 W087 51.858 (as of 9/3/17). This mark is located north of the MAST buoy.

The MAST buoy (which is not part of the G course) has a light. As of 9/4/2016, its position was W43 02.208 N087 50.781.

Please note that there will be a MAST race taking place on Friday evening and those racers will be using the MAST buoy as one of their marks.
